AYC Medical Waiver - 2012

The parent or guardian is assuming full responsibility for the Junior Sailor's health, assuring that the activities undertaken in the AYC Junior Sailing Program will in no way aggravate any health conditions that are present. It is assumed that the parent/guardian will be aware of the student's condition and the physical demands of our program, or will seek advice before completing this form. The parent/guardian will notify the sailing office if for any reason their child's condition should change.

The parent or guardian understands that in the case of an emergency, a reasonable attempt will be made by AYC to contact them, or one of the alternate contacts, but in the event that this is not possible, the parent or guardian gives their permission to transport their child to the nearest source of emergency care so that necessary medical treatment not be delayed.

The parent or guardian accepts full responsibility for any medical costs that may occur from their child's participation in the AYC Junior Sailing and Racing Program. AYC shall not be held liable for any injury to the child/children named above. It is understood that the staff of the sailing classes will take reasonable precautions to provide a safe learning environment for your child. As a parent or guardian, you are aware that the activity of sailing instruction includes inherent physical risk. You certify that your child has the physical capability for this activity, and you hereby authorize the instructors of this class to secure medical treatment for your child in the event of an emergency.

AYC Code of Conduct - 2012 (please fill out 1 per sailor)

It is the goal of the Agamenticus Yacht Club Junior Sailing Program to provide a safe and educational environment for all participants. It is of utmost importance that all sailors and their parents be aware of the standards expected regarding behavior both on and off the water.

The Agamenticus Yacht Club (AYC) wishes to promote mutual respect amongst its sailors, coaches, parents, members and guests through the use of appropriate language, attitude and physical behavior.

All participants of the AYC Junior Sailing Program are expected at all times to:

- Remember safety is the top priority
- To be familiar and comply with the club rules, program rules and the fundamental rules of sportsmanship and fair play as described in US Sailings' Rules of Sailing Part 1
- Demonstrate mutual respect for all sailors, coaches, parents, members or other human beings
- Exhibit respect for all equipment and property, whether it is yours, the Club's, or anyone else's
- Be an ambassador of AYC while attending regattas and related events
- Uphold zero tolerance for verbal and/or physical threats and/or physical abuse
- Uphold zero tolerance for the use of alcohol, tobacco and non-prescribed drugs
- Uphold zero tolerance for any weapons or sharp instruments that are used to threaten or hurt others
- Follow the fundamental rules of fair sailing and display good sportsmanship on the water or on land at all times

I have read the AYC Junior Sailing Program Code of Conduct and I agree to abide by it at all times while participating in any AYC practices, regattas, or other events. I understand that failure to do so will result in disciplinary action and may result in suspension or removal from the AYC Junior Sailing Program.
